Teacher name(s): Mrs Nichol,
Report published: DRAFT

It brings me great joy to share with you this end of year report detailing the progress and achievements of your child. Each child's journey is unique, and it's heartening to witness the growth, enthusiasm, and achievements they have displayed in their learning journey.

In this report, you'll find a reflection of not only their academic achievements but also their personal development, creativity, and resilience. Our primary focus is not just on grades but on nurturing well-rounded individuals equipped with the skills and confidence to navigate the world beyond the classroom.

I want to thank our brilliant staff team for encouraging and supporting your child. Their passion for teaching and dedication to your child's growth are evident in the progress made and the positive learning experiences shared.

As partners in your child's educational journey, I encourage you to celebrate their successes, no matter how big or small, and to continue supporting and guiding them in their learning adventures ahead. Together, let us continue to foster a love for learning and curiosity that will serve them well in their future endeavors.

Warm regards,

Mr Cochrane

Understanding this report

Attainments

Attainment is a judgement against national expectation made through teacher assessments, testing and children's work. Schools strive to ensure as many children are within or at greater depth within the expected standard as possible.

At the end of Reception children are judged against the Early Learning Goals, they will be either Emerging – working towards them or Expected – working within them.
